SO ORDERED.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge

Re: United States of America v. Neil Phillips, No. 1:22-cr-00138-LJL

Dear Judge Liman:

By letter to the Court submitted last night (Dkt. No. 37), the government informed both the Court and the defense that it does not intend to proceed to trial on two of the four counts in the Indictment in the above-referenced matter. The government's decision substantially impacts motions in limine, which are currently due tomorrow, September 27, 2023. In order to permit the defense to assess the impact of the government's decision and to revise its motions accordingly, we respectfully request a brief, two-day extension of the filing deadline for those motions (including any challenges to anticipated expert testimony) until Friday, September 29, 2023. And we propose that the deadline be extended for both the defense and the government. The government consents to this request. Relatedly, the parties jointly request a similar extension to the opposition deadline for these motions, from October 4 to October 6, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

Jenna M. Dabbs
